

Gospel: 6th SUNDAY OF EASTER
22nd of May 2022. Cycle: C

IN WAITING

THE WORD BECOMES SONG

SETTING

At your side, continuing in this Easter season. Meet you, with your Spirit, the one that inhabits me and others. From silence I walk on the path that leads to life, to meaning, to different realities, circumstances that surrounds people, who seek answers, horizon, and inhabitable land.

At your side, I breathe sensations and life; and I want to share it in our daily life that is writing those little stories.

United in you, we will make possible the dreams that sprout at every step and the warm and friendly sensations that renew everything from the love that recreates, transforms and beautifies everything.

Walking with meaning, keeping an eye on what is necessary, and entering life, expressing what we feel, what we believe and what we carry inside.

Let us recreate the message bringing it closer to everyone, make it real, radical and committed.

EVANGELIO – Juan 14, 23-29

"Jesus answered him. " Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words: and the word that you hear is not mine, but is from the Father who sent me. I have said these things to you while I am with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you: my peace I give you; I do not give it to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, I am going away, and I am coming to you." If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

We deepen the Gospel

John describes Jesus to us as sovereignly free. It is Jesus who reassures his disciples and not the other way around! Not only does he know what is going to happen, but he accepts it and does nothing to escape. Jesus announces to them that he is going to leave, but he presents the case as the condition and the beginning of a new presence: "I am going and I will come back to you."

The fact that Jesus's going will be interpreted later, after the Resurrection, as Jesus' Passover. John himself says in chapter 13: "Before the feast of Easter, Jesus, knowing that his time had come, the time to GO from this world to his Father"...John voluntarily uses that word, because it is known that Easter would not say "go". "If you loved me, you would be happy since I am going with the Father".

And this is not the first time these expressions have been used: a little earlier, when Philip asked him: "Show us the Father", Jesus calmly replies: "He who has seen me, has seen the Father" (John 14:9). In other words, he is the Messenger of the Father; he is the Word of the Father. From now on, the Spirit will be the one who will make these words understood and will engrave them in the memory of the disciples. Because The key to this text is probably to be found in the expression "word": that's right, we see that it is repeated several times and if we refer to what has been said before, we cannot doubt it; this is "the word", which must be absolutely observed, the word that defines the “commandment of love”: “love one another”. As far as we are concerned, this commandment helps us to understand better the mission of the Holy Spirit: He is the one who teaches us to love and reminds us of the commandment of love.

But why does Jesus call the Spirit "the Defender"? We know that we do not need someone to defend you from God! Actually, the Spirit is our "Defender" because He really protects us. Yes, He protects us from ourselves... That is right, our greatest misfortune is to forget that the essential thing is to love one another and serve. It is therefore normal that the Spirit of love instils in the Disciples of Christ, the will to maintain PEACE, at whatever cost.

Clues for the prayers

What does the text say? (Reading)

What God is telling me through this text? (Meditation)

How do I dialogue with God with what the text tells me? (Sentence)

How do I feel the presence of God in my life? (Contemplation)

How do I put into practice the message of the word of God in my real life? (Action)

YOU INSPIRE MY LIFE

LEARN FROM YOU

Love transforms the world.

Do we live what we believe?

the world would be a different.

Not necessary

big things,

just listen

to everything.

And echo life

that vibrates by our side

or the other side.

Delivery, being

goes from the others to me.

Not so much what I want

what I feel;

if not what the other needs,

feel, want and desire.
The thing changes!
mine being good,
logical and consistent
give way to the others,
our centre of interest.
Change everything,
there is an adjustment needed
to the brother's questions.
direct delivery,
being in doing.
Set up a universe
as a space of possibilities.
Open new paths,
Incarnated , resilient,
accompanied.
be witnesses,
from what was seen and heard.
Accompanied by the Spirit,
teacher, comforter friend...
walk in his light,
breaking stereotypes
and letting it grow
from the freedom of God.
Providing the necessary support
so that each one
let us be the best
that we can become
self-creature
funny, witness
of that kingdom
It involves us all, with everyone.
Spirit of God, come.
Open and on the way.
