

CHRISTMAS

25th of December 24 - Cycle C

HAPPY CHRISTMAS

SETTING

Today is Christmas, everything becomes new, the earth dresses up, because a child has been given to us, a son.

Open your heart to this new light that surrounds everything. Let's leave behind everything that hurts us and open ourselves to the possibility of being better.

The God who loves you as you are and who always walks with you, is the one who lives in each person around you, those who are and are. Open your eyes and discover him inside you, in your thoughts, in your expressiveness.

Teach us to be with you, Lord.

GOSEL – John 1, 1-18

"In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. It was in the beginning with God. Everything was made through it and without it nothing was made that exists. In it was life and life was the light of men, and the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. There was a man, sent by God: his name came for a testimony, to bear witness to the light, to bear witness. That everyone believed for him It was not. He was the light, but he who had to bear witness to the light. The Word was the true light that illuminates every man who comes into this world. It was in the world, and the world was made by it, and the world did not know it. She came to her house, and her people did not receive her. But to all who received her, she gave power to become children of God, to those who believe in her name; which was not born of blood, nor of the desire of man, but who was born of God. And the Word became flesh, and put his He dwells among us, and we have contemplated his glory, glory that he receives from the Father as the only Son, full of grace and truth. John bears witness to him and cries out: "This was the one of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has stood before me, because he was before me.'" For of his fullness we have all received, and grace for grace. Because the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth have come to us through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God: the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has told."

To deepen the Word of God today

Is 52,7-10. An oracle in the form of a poem with a lyricism that drags. When you see a newborn lying in a manger, you can measure the humility of a God whose strength is revealed in weakness.

Psalm 97. Victory of life over death. A Love stronger than hate, Christmas, first stage of Jesus' Easter itinerary.

Heb 1,1-6. Contrary to silent idols, God speaks. For a long time, he turned to middlemen. "In the time in which we are" God has sent his own Word, Jesus "perfect expression of his being", of his project and of his will.

Jn 1,1-18. The first page of the Gospel according to Saint John has the style, sober and solemn at the same time, of a great liturgical hymn. That page suggests the opening of a "Symphony of the New World" that would announce the themes developed subsequently in multiple variations with subtle counterpoint. The reality, the realism of the Incarnation of the Son of God, is at the center of this vigorous entry into the matter of the entire fourth gospel. The Word made flesh is the revelation of the Father and his love. To receive it, to believe in it, is to have eternal life.
