

TRINITY SUNDAY

15th June 2025 – Cycle C

LOVE THAT IS BEING SHARED

SETTING

Today we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity: God is not someone solitary, but rather shared love, family, and communion. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, three persons who invite us to live in that same love.

Also today, the Church remembers with gratitude those who dedicate their lives to prayer: nuns and monks who, in silence, contemplate God and pray for all. They remind us that prayer is an essential part of the Christian life.

May this celebration help us live with more love, more listening, and more faith, united to the God who always walks by our side.

GOSPEL – John 16, 12-15

""I still have much to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. When he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. For he will not speak on his own, but what he hears, he will speak; and he will declare to you what is to come. He will glorify me because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. Therefore, I said, 'He will take what is mine and declare it to you.'"

Prov. 8, 22-31.

To evoke the inexpressible transcendence of divine wisdom, the author of the Book of Proverbs personalizes this attribute, without denying strict biblical monotheism. It can be applied to a very specific and concrete person to whom it is perfectly suited.

Psalm 8. At the heart of the new creation, in Christ, man rediscovers his divine greatness.

Rom 5:1-5. Salvation is a gift from God obtained not through works but through faith in Christ and thanks to the presence of the Spirit within us. The intervention of the divine Persons in what is called "the economy of salvation" is explicitly stated here: everything comes from the Father, through the Son, in the Spirit; it is the proof of God's love in the human heart.

Jn 16,11-15. Here Jesus reveals the intimacy of the Trinity, a mystery into which he himself introduces us. But to perceive this mystery of love and communion, we must agree with him; it is essential that we ourselves be a blazing fire of love and communion. What Jesus tells us in this Gospel, among other things, is that the Spirit of God, his fire, will come to us and dwell within us. We must keep in mind that we are still in the context of the Last Supper on Holy Thursday: Jesus bids farewell to his disciples and prepares them for the events to come. He reveals almost all of his mystery to them, but there are things they cannot yet understand: "I would have much more to tell you, but for now, you do not have the strength to bear it." The history of humanity, like all human history, is the history of a long journey. Here Jesus reveals the intimacy of the Trinity, a mystery into which he himself introduces us. ## GOD WITH ME

God is love, he is communion,
three persons, but one heart.
Father, Son, and faithful Spirit,
one God, friend, companion.
He is not a mystery merely to be thought about,
he is a reference, to love and act.
Where there is tenderness,
justice, and forgiveness,
there God is with us.
The Father has always cared for
us,
he calls us, he names us.
He is calm strength, he is pure
love,
he is the one who teaches us and
gives us rebirth.
Jesus, the Son, walks beside us,
shares our joys and tears.
He is the human face of God,
and gives us his cross and his voice.

The Spirit blows where he wants
to go,
encourages us to trust, to serve.
He is an inner fire, he is light in
our journey,

he is joy in our love.

Three in one, united in love,
God the community, eternal Father.
He does not walk alone, he gives
himself ceaselessly,
he invites us to be.

It is seen in everyday life,
in the kind gesture, in the bread.
In every person, in every corner,
His love is the background
melody.

When I forgive, when I share,
when I lift up those who are
fallen,
the Trinity also lives in me,
and His joy is expressed in me.

Thank you, Lord, for being communion,
for teaching us to dream,
to always live loving and recreating,
always uniting, communing.
